

AMLAW 200 LAW FIRM CASE STUDY

Public Finance Partner
Chicago and Columbus

CHALLENGE

A Diverse Partner in Chicago had a self-sufficient Public Finance practice with Illinois clients. He and his wife recently had their first child and wanted to move back to his home town (Columbus, OH) for family support.

To make the relocation worth it, this partner needed to land at a sophisticated law firm that had an existing Public Finance practice with offices in Chicago and Columbus where he could maintain his client relationships and continue growing his client base.

SOLUTION

The Lion Group provided a confidential and thorough process of evaluating the market opportunities and the best law firm options for the Partner Candidate. We matched his requirements with our quantitative and qualitative assessment of available law firms.

RESULTS

The Diverse Partner landed at an AmLaw200 firm with a reputable Midwest Public Finance practice group and stepped into an exciting opportunity at the Columbus office where he would continue growing his client base. .
